

PMR Activities from JANUARY – JULY 2015

Life in PMR

At the 7 January 2015 Business Meeting, a young Master Mason named Tyler Hill from Green Ridge Lodge 597, Scranton PA visited our Lodge, said he plans to live and work within communicating distance of Worms, and was provided a Petition For Affiliation. At the February Business Meeting the District Master of District 2 of the ACGL visited our Lodge and was escorted West of the Alter and presented a first time visitors coin. A Past Masters replacement apron was mailed 16 February 2015 to Honorary Past Master Brother Landon Chapman for his that was lost to a fire, provided him by the Brothers of Triangle Lodge 834 in January 1988. Our dear and still active Brother Landon donated $100 to Lodge charity.

On 26 February, the sad tidings that Eastern Star Sister Gertrud Williamson wife of our SW VVBro Ward Williamson, had passed on to the Great Architect of the Universe. The funeral was on Monday 9 Mar 2015 at St. Peter's Church in Gauangelloch in the Heidelberg area. Our WM Paul Ezo and VVBro Bob Young attended. Brothers & Sisters, family and friends from far and near over filled this small village church's capacity. Sister Gertrud enjoyed supporting Brother Ward in his active participation in all his Masonic activities in Blue Lodge, and all the many coordinate bodies Brother Ward is a member of. Our Sister will be greatly missed.

In March, PMR donated 100 Euros to the Worms music school to help with expenses for local children with their musical needs. The children from the Worms music school bring great solo and group music to the Lodge every year during our Christmas dinner program. It's a good cause.

Friday and Saturday, 17 & 18 April, was the ACGL Annual Communication at the Hotel Sonnenhugel in Bad Kissingen. The WM Paul Ezo, VVBro Young, and VVBro Peter Lohr attended.
